BONNOTS

Rosé de saignée Single plot cuvée

EXTRA BRUT — VINIFIED AND AGED IN OAK BARRELS

This intense, powerful and fruity cuvée is elaborated with care and precision. As a gastronomic wine, it will sublimate some shavings of patta negra, a fillet of deer with cranberries or a black forest. All possibilities are open to you with this cuvée to impress your guests!

This intense and powerful rosé de saignée, elaborated with great care, is made exclusively from rigorously selected Pinot Noir grapes from a single plot planted in 1969, benefiting from an ideal exposure and terroir.

The harvest is done at full maturity. We do a first sorting of the grapes in the vineyard and a second sorting on a sorting table. The grapes are then crushed and destemmed and cooled. The maceration lasts between 18 and 30 hours. This duration depends on the color but especially on the desired aromas. As soon as it is devoured, the alcoholic fermentation is launched in oak barrels. The wood used for the realization of these barrels is selected locally with our cooper, and the toasting validated by our nose. The ageing on lees is also done entirely in wood. The malolactic fermentation is blocked in order to keep the freshness. In order to preserve the aromas, this cuvée is only pumped once; gravity is used for the most part. This wine has not been chilled or filtered. The riddling is done by hand.

SUMMARY OF SENSORY EXPRESSIONS

Eye: the robe has an intense garnet color with deep salmon reflections. A lively effervescence feeds a large persistent collar.

Nose: the first nose is powerful, complex and intense with a great aromatic diversity. Ripe black cherry dominates, but there are also notes of black currant, raspberry and plum. We are in the register of the wine of gastronomy.

Mouth: round, fruity, powerful and juicy, with the patina of the vinification in wood. The finish remains concentrated on cooked red fruits (strawberry, redcurrant) and on aromas of grilled almond and sandalwood. The low dosage gives a light mentholated frame which brings freshness.

Food and wine pairing: this gastronomy wine is made for the table, it will go perfectly with a fillet of deer with cranberries, a marinated grill or an onget of beef. it will also sublimate an aperitif and shavings of patta-negra or a dessert such as a black forest or a crumble of autumn fruits. All possibilities are open to you with this vintage to impress your guests!
